To Whom It May Concern:

The Chamber is committed to the growth and progress of the African American business community. The Chamber is thriving for the region's economic prosperity and the community's well-being. We want to make Waco an even better place to live, and do business in. Our vision is to be the premier advocate for African American businesses and the East Waco community.

I was with great pleasure I received your request regarding your board member opening. I immediately started thinking of community leaders I have met to share the information with.

I recently met Mr. Walter Brown during the planning for the Juneteenth Celebration this year. He was scheduled to be one of our speakers during the kickoff celebration. Mr. Brown is the president of the local NAACP chapter a fine and honorable organization with long ties to the community. He has also become a member of the Cen-Tex African American Chamber of Commerce. We are looking forward to working with him in these capacities.

I understand and support the important benefits your organization brings to this community. I hope you will continue your diligent efforts while striving for diversity in the community.

Respectfully,

Laveda Brown
Executive Director
